

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The town of Wallace is celebrating its 100th Anniversary as an organized community in the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Despite its size, Wallace has continually been home to a number of exceptional athletes, such as South Dakota Baseball Hall of Fame designee, Gilbert Bruflat; and,

Whereas, The businesses of Wallace have continued to grow and thrive despite eight devastating fires; and,

Whereas, Wallace is a community of active church and civic-minded members where one can still depend on a helping hand from a neighbor; and,

Whereas, Wallace is proud to be the birthplace of former United States Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey; and,

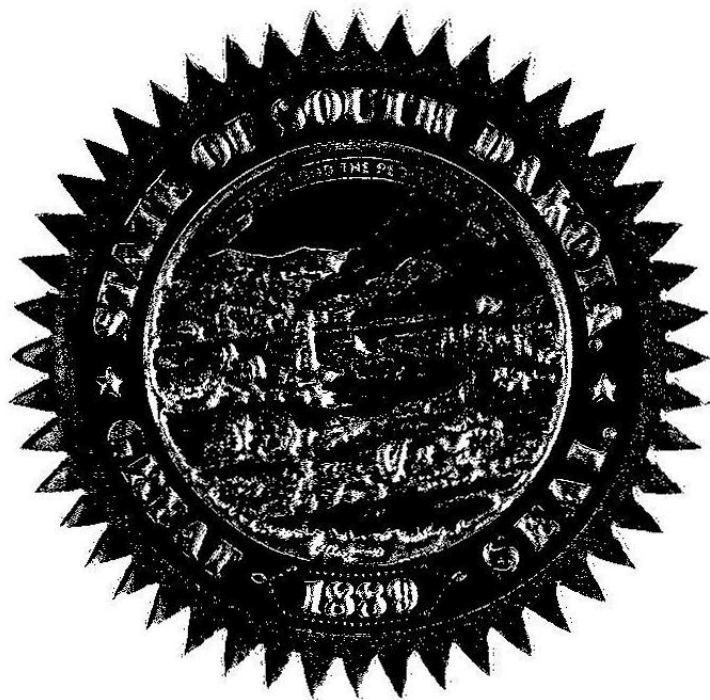

Whereas, Many current and former residents of the Wallace area have volunteered hundreds of hours to plan the centennial event that will take place on Saturday, June 24, 2006:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 24, 2006, as in South Dakota.

WALLACE CENTENNIAL DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State